

Al Khail Real Estate

Al Khail Real Estate was established in December 2006, the company has earned formidable success in a short span of time. In less than two years, the company pushed towards expanding its investments beyond Dubai, in order to diversify its financial resources and minimize risk. The company plans to invest in mature markets as well as emerging markets in Asia, Africa and the Middle East, in the near future.

As one of key players in the industry, the company's projects include sizeable developments that offer significant returns to investors. Being a committed developer the company's philosophy goes beyond developing luxurious projects. The company is well aware of basic requirements of investors and the significance of the resell value of the properties. The sole purpose of venturing into development is to provide quality living with luxurious facilities and amenities, creating comfortable atmosphere and above all instill the trust factor amongst investors.

Al Khail Real Estate is determined to ensure the same attention to detail that has satisfied its customers in the Dubai. That's why, after an in-depth study of the market prospects and trends available in the Emirate of Ajman, the company recognized the unique investment opportunity that Ajman offers and decided to venture in the market, which has resulted in to launch Al Khail Towers 1,2 and 3 in Alhelio down town.
