

International Capital Trust

International Capital Trust is a German investment house with an international investor network. ICT is now investing in real-estate developments in the United Arab Emirates, with a special focus on Ajman. International Capital Trust was established specially for the conception and marketing of closed-end funds and pioneering investment vehicles generating first-class returns. With an extensive international network of investors and project sales partners, ICT makes investment decisions based on the principles of financial solidity and security of returns of investor money.